Since 2002, New Headings has been helping tens of thousands of travelers gear up and get ready for their adventures in fabled destinations such as Antarctica,

Africa, Machu Picchu, Mt. Kilimanjaro, and the Galápagos. We have assisted them mostly via our online store and over the phone.

Many of our customers asked, "Do you have a store where we can come see everything, try it on, learn how it works?"... We didn't — until now!

We recently opened our showroom in Ansonia, Connecticut so if you're able to do so, you can come in to see, feel, try on, and learn about the gear you'll need for your next travel adventure. You tell us your destination — we help outfit you with exactly the right stuff! We welcome groups as well as individuals in a fun, informative, and comfortable setting and we won't sell you anything we don't use ourselves.
